

'SUN' SMOKES FUND GETS $2,500 BOOST

Shirt Makers at Luncheon Contribute $1,500 for Soldiers' Comfort.

TOTAL GIFTS $263,345

Interest in Friars and Lone Star Boat Club Handball Tourney Increases.

For THE SUN Tobacco Fund $1,150. This amount was raised yesterday by the shirt, collar, pajama and blouse committee of the Shirt Makers Association in almost less time than it takes to tell about it. Laterally the amount was subscribed between sips of the after-luncheon coffee, for the members were assembled in the dining room of the Argyll Club, 329 Broadway, for the committee's regular Tuesday luncheon.

Naturally the conversation was of war subjects and drifted into a consideration of various agencies which make for the comfort of the American soldier. Just as naturally THE SUN Tobacco Fund was extolled as a project which is doing a great practical work. So after one or two informal talks somebody suggested a contribution to the fund and soon the committee were seeking to outbid one another in the amount of their offerings.

These were the subscriptions which rolled in in the course of those few lively minutes: Julius Levy of Manhattan Shirt Company, $100; L. Phillips of Phillips, Jones & Co., $100; A. Tauber and J. E. Rittenberg of Tauber, Rittenberg & Co., $75 each; Samuel Valentine, $250; M. Lustberg of Lustberg, Nast & Co., $50; N. Dillenber of E. Rosenberg & Co., $50 (subscribed for his son, D. Alan Dillenber, who is a soldier in France); H. D. Bob of Bob & Baskind, $50; Mark E. Goldberg, $25; Joseph C. Jacobson of F. Jacobson & Son, $25; Louis Newman of Broom & Newman, $25; Frank C. Laux of Earl & Wilson, $25; A. E. Wilson of Cluett, Peabody & Co., $25; I. Unterberg, $25; Louis A. Rogan, $25; Joseph Harowitz, $25; H. L. Liebowitz, $100; Sidney Rosenstein, $25.

Shirt Makers Liberal.
The patriotic work done by the six committees into which the Shirt Makers Association is divided for war purposes is fairly gigantic. During the second Liberty Loan campaign the members bought $250,000 worth of bonds, and already they have more than doubled that subscription for the third loan. Julius Levy is chairman of the committee which is arranging to start a big drive for the Red Cross.

The spontaneous and voluntary contribution to THE SUN Tobacco Fund was a patriotic act which, it is safe to say, is likely to commend itself to other organizations of business men. The $1,150 item will appear in the fund's contribution list in an early issue.

The promise of the United States to France that "everything we have in our hands" is being sent to the front is being fulfilled. The staff correspondent with the American army over there in the EVENING SUN yesterday. The rush of donations to the tobacco fund seems to indicate a desire on the part of the Americans who are at home to give everything they have for the comfort of our brave soldiers. Everything that is, that they are not putting in Liberty bonds.

Even without the magnificent contribution of the shirt makers the fund is up more than $1,000 this morning and well above $250,000. The latest top crossed, and $275,000, the summit that looms just ahead, is behind.

Among the offerings which are listed today is one of $500 from W. R. T. A man who takes literally the injunction forbidding the giver to acquaint the left hand with the right hand's benefactor. The gift is thankfully received and the fund's only regret is that it must keep this patriot's name a secret.

Bert Walton a Good Booster.
While working for the Liberty Loan in Fox's Bay Ridge Theatre Saturday, Bert Walton of the popular vaudeville team Walton and Gilmore, took up a collection, raising $400. Walton named THE SUN Tobacco Fund, the Knights of Columbus, the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A., and asked the audience to decide to which the money should go. THE SUN Fund won out by a large majority.

A week ago in the Bedford Theatre, Brooklyn, Walton, after selling $100,000 worth of Liberty bonds collected $261.27 for the "soldier's smokes." And he is still boosting. He is at the Audubon Theatre, Broadway and 168th street, this week and on Friday and Saturday he intends to auction a war relic and turn the amount received over to the fund. The relic is an aluminum paper cutter which was made by a blind French soldier from the propeller of a captured German airplane. It was presented to Walton by a French Colonel.

Two checks just received are for $50 each, one from Dr. T. M. Cheesman, Garden, N. Y., the other from Catherine M. Gardiner, Ridgefield, Conn. Writing on a letterhead of the Hero Manufacturing Company, Philadelphia, Capt. P. M. Wicwail of the Sanitary Corps, National Army, says:

"Here is a check for $25. This money was voluntarily given by the girls of the factory for the tobacco fund. They are working on supplies for the boys over there and of their own free will they have decorated their work room with flags and bunting. Their plan is to contribute regularly to the fund. You will agree, I am sure, that this shows a fine spirit."

On indeed, Lieutenant. The girls of the Hero company are heroines. The members of the Pompton Plains Club, Pompton Plains, Morris county, New Jersey, are never forgetful of the soldiers. At a gathering in Mandeville Inn, Pompton Plains, the other night, they collected $17.75 for the fund.

$11.75 More From Little Clippies.

To the $150 which was received a few weeks ago from the crippled children's East Side Free School, the proceeds of a concert given by the Kitchen Band, a students' organization, $11.75 was added yesterday. This supplement to a previously extended offering represents late returns from the sale of tickets.

At a meeting of Staten Island Forest No. 25, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, held in Tottenville, Staten Island, December 1, 1917, the members of the order, the noble, "donations to the amount of $10.00 were received, and with it we desire to express our wishes for the greatest possible success for the smoke fund. May the recipients of smokes from the fund take as much pleasure in receiving them as we have had in helping to furnish them."

Isabel M. Johnston, South Orange, N. J. writes:

"I am enclosing a very small contribution for your fund. I wish I had money enough to provide smokes for every American soldier and sailor in France. As a small token of my appreciation and gratitude for what they are doing, but I am sending all I can spare at present, with my best wishes, for your splendid work."

H. Haverstraw, West Haverstraw, a reporter, whose name has appeared in the lists every month since last summer, is represented again this morning. Sportmen are taking a very keen interest in the plans for the national handball contest, to be held Saturday night in the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, with THE SUN Tobacco Fund as the beneficiary. Indications are that it will be more representative of the athletic life of the city and the metropolitan district than any other event ever held, for virtually every organization which has a handball club is planning to send participants. Since M. J. Tofo, who has the affair in charge, acting for both the Lone Star Boat Club and the Friars, is receiving applications from players and clubs almost hourly.

Dance and Band Music.

In addition to the games, in which will appear the recognized champions as well as many ambitious lesser lights, there is to be a dance in which everybody who attends will be invited to take part. For both the athletic and the social features the services of the Seventy-first Regiment band, justly famed as a musical organization, have been donated.

Tickets for the big double event are being sold for 50 cents each. They are on sale in the stores of A. G. Spaulding & Bro., 128 Nassau street, and 523 Fifth avenue. Alexander Taylor & Co., 28 West Forty-second street; S. H. Davers, 405 and 831 Broadway, and I. Davers, Jr., 125 West 125th street, as well as at the Friars Club and the Lone Star Boat Club.

Saturday will be THE SUN Fund night also at the Hotel Clendenning, 262 West 103d street, where the Hilton Club is planning to give a big show, assisted by several talented volunteers. Miss Lillian Engle, popular soprano, who has delighted audiences at a number of recent fund benefits, will sing, and in addition the singers and dancers of the new "Revue of Cheer" will put on the entire "Campus" restaurant programme. Tickets for the dinner and entertainment are $1.50 each.

An entertainment to be given in Terrace Gardens, Friday night, by 100 pupils of the Tremont Dancing School, 470 Tremont avenue, is to be turned into a demonstration for both Liberty bonds and the Tobacco Fund. After a speaker assigned by the Liberty Loan Committee has made an address and subscriptions for the loan taken, Claud Lanning, whose wife is director of the school, expects to make a talk for soldier's smokes and send children through the audience to take a collection for the fund. Among the features will be a musical drill by one of the classes. In addition, several soldiers in uniform will attend, including six who were pupils of Mrs. Lanning.

Here is an item which will interest every person in the army of thoughtful men whose slogan is, "When you smoke let the soldier boys smoke with you!"

4,000,000 Cigarettes for Boys.

There went out of this port, bound for France, last week a single shipment of 4,000,000 cigarettes (Nebos), all of which were the result of certificates slipped into the fund boxes in Schulte cigar stores. And this was, of course, only one of many similar shipments that have been made as a result of the deposits of certificates and coupons in these boxes. This is a concrete example of what these little slips of paper mean in actual tobacco. You receive one or more with every purchase made in a Schulte or United cigar store. They are things of value, every one of them, for if dropped in one of the fund depositories they are translated into smokes for the soldiers at the front.

The final week's drive in the Liberty Loan campaign is making the bond booth in James McCreery & Co.'s store, Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, one of the very busiest places in town. There every visitor may perform a double duty and enjoy a double privilege. Not only is the opportunity offered him to subscribe to the loan, but in so doing he may, through the firm's generosity, give direct aid to any one of five great war funds.

Each subscriber at McCreery's receives a card on which the names of the five funds are printed, and to the one which he indicates with his pencil James McCreery & Co. give a dollar. THE SUN Fund is in the list, and many of the patriots indicate their preference for it. The others are the American Red Cross, the Knights of Columbus, the Young Men's Christian Association and the Jewish War Relief.

Indictments charging them with being common gamblers yesterday were returned by the Grand Jury against Thomas L. Reynolds, alias "Senator" Reynolds, whose house in West Sixty-eighth street was raided Sunday night; George Mack, an associate of Reynolds, and William Ellis, Reynolds's butler. The men will be arraigned to-day. Additional charges of grand larceny and attempted grand larceny will be brought against Reynolds. District Attorney Swann said last night. In the evidence, said Mr. Swann, will be information that Reynolds exhibited to certain alleged "victims" checks for large sums of money made payable to him by leading financiers of the State. The indictments were forged, Reynolds, however, made no effort to cash the checks Mr. Swann explained.

It became known yesterday that Reynolds at one time was a prominent Tammany politician and a member of the Long Acre Club, which in 1905 nominated him for leader in the Twenty-seventh Assembly district. The campaign was exceedingly hot. Thomas F. McAvoy, Reynolds's rival, accused him of being a henchman of the gambling interests and of trying to negotiate two $50,000 promissory notes which, according to McAvoy, the police then were investigating. Reynolds at the time, it is understood, was a captain of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, N. Y. N. G., and had a large following among the Tammany voters. His contest for leadership of the district despite this fact was unsuccessful. It is said that his father, the late Capt. Francis E. Reynolds, was one of the organizers of the Tammany Regiment at the beginning of the civil war.

Another rumor that Commissioner Enright plans the reduction of six or seven inspectors and the elevation to that grade of captains more to his liking was discounted by an official who is believed to enjoy the Commissioner's confidence. One or two inspectors may be reduced to captains, but no more, it was said. Commissioner Enright was a lieutenant when appointed. He had headed the civil service list for several years and would have been a captain long ago but for the fact that several commissioners "jumped" him in selecting men for promotion.

Sergeant Thomas McElroy of the Police Department pistol team which competed recently against the police teams of the country, has hung up a new record for police marksmen by scoring 157 in a possible 200 from twenty yards at a one inch bullseye. The mark was made in the Seventy-first Regiment Armory.

Because of a shortage of men for patrol the assignment of men to motor patrol wagons has been reduced from three to two.

Surprise ran through the Police Department last night when Commissioner Enright announced the transfer to patrol duty of six sergeants who have been acting as detectives. Two other sergeants recently were transferred from the Detective Bureau to patrol duty.

John A. Golden, who goes to the Madison street station, is an expert photographer and finger print specialist and has been in the Detective Bureau for several years. The others transferred were William H. Van Twilster, who goes to the Flushing station; Patrick J. Curley, to Sixth avenue, Brooklyn; Charles Liebers, to Oak street; Francis E. Hawkins, to East 104th street, and Edward Markey, to Prospect Park, Brooklyn.

"Senator" Was in Contest With Thomas F. McAvoy for Political Favor.
